

ACCIDENT REPORTING GUIDE

- 1. Stay calm and check for injuries.
- 2. Call the Police. Avoid making statements about what caused the accident, assigning blame, or expressing frustration or anger.
- 3. Call your insurance company. Again, avoid making statements about what caused the accident, assigning blame, or expressing frustration or anger.
- 4. Exchange information and document the scene. Take photographs of the damage to the vehicles, the accident scene, any visible signs of injury to yourself, the other driver's license plate, driver's license and insurance card.
- 5. Seek medical attention. If your injuries are serious, request an ambulance, or have someone drive you to the nearest emergency room. Otherwise, you should follow up with your primary care physician as soon as possible. Do not try to tough it out. Delaying can hurt both your physical recovery, as well as your ability to pursue compensation.
- 6. Call Farrell & Thurman, P.C. (609) 924-1115
